Subject Call for Entries: ACGSA Design Competition 2020:

Dear Presidents and ACGSA Representatives

We hope that you stay healthy during this difficult time. It is time to prepare our homes for today's pandemic and future possible climatic and health crisis. Our resilience as individuals, as communities and as countries needs to be elevated. Let's contemplate on how we design, use resources, construct and operate that enhance occupants' well-being and safety.

ACGSA would like to invite you ARCASIA Members and students to participate in "Designing for Resilience of the Changing Environment". Please circulate this call for entries among our communities. The deadline for submission is December the 28th, 2020.

Should you have any questions, please contact Ar. Anjana Shrestha, ACGSA from SONA who is in charge of the competition, at competitionacgsa@gmail.com

I look forward to your help to share news through your connections. I greatly appreciate your cooperation in advance.

Sincerely Yours,

Ar. Acharawan Chutarat
