

Announcement of SDC2025 & TOY2025

March 10, 2025

Dear Presidents,

Warm Greetings from the Korea Institute of Registered Architects!

On behalf of the Korea Institute of Registered Architects, I am honored to announce the official launch of the Student Design Competition 2025 and Thesis of the Year Award 2025.

We kindly request all ARCASIA Member Institutes to establish their own selection procedures to identify national winners and nominate three participants for each competition for the final judging. We encourage your students to take advantage of these opportunities to foster their creativity, engage in healthy competition, and strive for excellence in architecture.
